HAZEL GREEN, KY.,
WEDNESDAY, JUNE 20, 1886.

FOR JUDGE 19TH JUDICIAL DISTRICT,
J. BAMPFORD WHITE,
OF ESTILL COUNTY.

We are authorized to announce
SON. W. P. TAULBEE,
Of Madison county, a candidate for Circuit Court Judge of the Tenth Kentucky District, who is the author of the following paper:

By reference to our columns today it will be seen that the delegates from this county to the Jackson convention to nominate a candidate for Circuit Court Judge of this district, to be held on tomorrow go without instructions. Now, in the name of the people of this country, or at least two-thirds of the voters, we ask, why is this so? The reason, we believe, is that the state of the district, by four to one, a fair-minded man will do, and it looks like this county convention was fixed up in the interest of some other man. We say it looks so. It may not be the case, but if it is not, why were not the delegates instructed for J. Bamford White, and the sentiment of the people expressed through their delegates. We do not write this to the detriment of Mr. Carlo Little, or to injure him in the cause of justice. He is an honest gentleman, and well qualified for the position, so far as we have been informed. That has nothing to do with the facts. The people of this country are for Bamford White, and if the delegates from this county do not vote for him they do not represent the people in a true sense. The people being for Mr. White, what good reason can be assigned for sending the delegate to another convention? If the people of this district in their wisdom, and some one else received the vote of this county through the instrumentality of any politician, the people of the county will remember him forever no more when he shall call for their suffrage, except to sit down on him and another his political aspirations. Now there is an idle talk about that. It is the popular voice expressed in print, and we were the delegates, the organ of the people, that sent the delegate to another convention. Let us have a word with the people, or doing so, must suffice the consequence, which will amount to their defeat at the polls should they ever offer for election.

H. P. Thomas, Chairman of the Twelfth Congressional District Democratic Committee, has called a convention to meet in Winchester on Thursday, July 2nd, to nominate a candidate for Congress. The district is composed of nine counties, and extends to the Tennessee and Virginia line. Viewing the call of this convention from any standpoint, it looks like a pique of jealousy. Secondly, the time is premature, as the people generally would prefer that the convention be held after the August election. Thirdly, the press, and even W. P. Taubee, is now serving the people of the district at the Capital of the Nation, and is thus presented from conferring with his constituents or putting up his fence. We repeat that it looks like a pique of jealousy, the object of which is to defeat "Our Friend," and if it does not to defeat them, will have failed to eat the turn. That's all, and nothing more.

John Charlie Little has recently presided in the courts of some of the upper counties and has shown himself to be a dexterous, fearless preying officer. Mr. White is untried, but the people of this county, knowing him better than they do Mr. Little, are for him, and will be disappointed if the vote of this county is not cast for him—first, last and all the time.

If the delegates of this county vote for J. Bamford White in the Jackson convention, the sentiment of the people will be voiced, and whether he is nominated or not, will be well. All the people ask is that they will not be traded off in the Jackson convention for the advancement of any man's cause.

The people of Wolfe county demand that they be fairly dealt with, and do not propose that Bamford White's chance be traded off in the Jackson convention for the advancement of any man's cause.

Mon. W. P. Taubee. Son. W. P. Taubee, was born in Morgan county, Ky., October 22, 1852; was educated in private schools, and taught school in Morgan county 1872 to 1878, and for the law from 1878 to 1881; was admitted to the bar in 1881; was elected a member of the Morgan County Court in 1883 and 1884; was elected a delegate to the Forty-ninth Congress as a Democrat, receiving 16,184 votes, and 15,875 votes for A. J. Auxier.

Mr. Taubee is a member of the Select Committee on the Alcoholic Liquor Traffic, of which Mr. Campbell, of Ohio, is Chairman, good speaker and a very independent statesman. He is a young man, and a new member.

In the month of May he made a speech on Civil Service Reform, and in a very determined manner gave some plain statements in showing how the officers were managed, particularly in Wolfe county. His speech was accompanied by a tabular statement, showing the substitutions employed, and the names of the officers, and how the names were divided, etc., so as to give a sensation; every voter in his district should read it for a copy of his speech.

He is a man of great energy, and as a native of Kentucky takes a great interest in every thing which tends to advance the interests of the poor and add to their happiness and comfort. He is identified with the Methodist denomination, which obtains three Church papers in this State, and is well connected with such a progressive element as it is in our country, and believes in our education, and betterments in our country, and the public school system. Mr. Taubee will, no doubt, be re-elected.

Expecting to tough weather, getting wet, living in dim localities are favorite pastimes, and the disease of the kidneys and bladder. As a preventive, and for the cure of all Kidney and liver trouble, use the valuable remedy, Dr. J. H. Williams' Patent Remedy, $1.00 per bottle. For sale by G. R. Swango, Hazel Green, and J. N. Vaughn, Campion.
